

Media Kit - Visual Collateral

Restrictions on Use

January 1, 2006

WAI Continuum's media kit and website provides comprehensive information about our firm, its projects and leadership team. The newsroom further provides visual collateral for use by press for article development and illustration.

WAI Continuum grants permission to the media and the public at large to reproduce and publish complete photographs or graphics ("images") from this section of the website, subject to the following restrictions:

1. Images may not be used to promote any product or service, other than those of WAI Continuum.
2. Images may not be modified other than resizing.
3. Images may not be used in any manor which disparages WAI Continuum, its services or projects.
4. Permission to use the images may be canceled by WAI Continuum at anytime, and you agree that upon receipt of notice to cease and desist from WAI Continuum that you shall immediately cease all use of images.
5. Credit shall be given to WAI Continuum for use of all images.

Should any questions or concerns arise from this policy governing use, please feel free to contact our Marketing Coordinator at anytime.
